

Art is Good Medicine Exhibition

By Gabriella Galvan

at the
McConnell-Raab
Hope Lodge

This exhibition celebrates the artistic achievements & personal resilience of anyone who has or is currently receiving medical treatment. By fostering connection, this event is aiming to show the impact art contributes to the lives of the participants, their families, and community.

Along with the art on the day of the event there will be food, music, and activities!

"I just started and finished and it came out amazing"
-Latisha

Dorothy has been going through her chemo journey for the past two years. She has a great appreciation for her wonderful nurses and the welcoming atmosphere of ECU Health. She is a Farmville native but has lived in other places such as Ohio and Michigan. She enjoys being around people and helping others.

"I tried something new"
-Mae

Corbette is from Alexandria, VA.
She is most proud of being a mom and grandmother. She has been battling cancer for two years which has been a challenge but she now has less hospital visits due to good treatment!
